Topics for Discussion

- National and State Economic Indicators
- April Year-to-Date Revenue Collections, Fiscal Year 2020
- Next Steps
- Federal Stimulus Funds

National and State Economic Indicators

- This is the first monthly report containing the effects of the COVID-19 outbreak. Impacts will include the general economic downturn and the decision by the Governor to defer April and May income tax payment dates for corporations and individuals to June 1.
- According to the initial estimate, real GDP fell at an annualized rate of 4.8 percent in the first quarter of 2020, following 2.1 percent growth in the previous two quarters.
- Payroll employment plummeted by 20.5 million jobs in April, with losses across all major industries.
- The national unemployment rate rose to 14.7 percent in April.
- Initial claims for unemployment fell by 677,000 to 3.2 million during the week ending May 2, while the four-week moving average fell from 5.0 million to 4.2 million.
- The Conference Board's index of leading indicators fell 6.7 percent in March, the steepest decline in its 60-year history.
  - The decline was broad-based, with stock prices and initial claims contributing the largest negative impacts.
- The Conference Board's index of consumer confidence fell from 118.8 to 86.9 in April. The present conditions component declined from 166.7 to 76.4, offsetting an increase in the expectations component.
- The Institute of Supply Management index fell from 49.1 to 41.5 in April.
  - The COVID-19 outbreak has led to plant closings and supply chain disruptions.

National and State Economic Indicators

- The Consumer Price Index (CPI) fell 0.4 percent in March following a 0.1 percent increase in February and stands 1.5 percent above March 2019.
  - Core inflation (excluding food and energy prices) fell 0.1 percent, and has increased 2.1 percent from last year.
- At its April meeting, the Federal Reserve left the federal funds target rate unchanged at the range of 0.0 to 0.25 percent. Quantitative easing remains open-ended.
- In Virginia, payroll employment rose by 0.6 percent in March compared with last year. Northern Virginia posted growth of 0.8 percent; Hampton Roads fell 0.2 percent; and Richmond-Petersburg rose 1.0 percent. The March report reflects the very beginning of the effects from COVID-19.
- The Virginia seasonally adjusted unemployment rate rose 0.7 percentage point to 3.3 percent in March.
- The Virginia Leading Index tumbled 6.8 percent in March after rising 0.1 percent in February.
  - All four components: auto registrations, the U.S. Leading index, initial claims, and future employment deteriorated.
  - The index for Staunton rose modestly while the indexes for the remaining ten metro areas declined in March.

Growth in Total General Fund Revenue Collections FY20 Monthly and Year-to-Date

- Total general fund revenues decreased 26.2 percent in April.
  - The deferral of the payment date to June 1 for individual and corporate income tax payments caused lower levels of activity before the new date.
- On a year-to-date basis, total revenues increased 1.4 percent, behind the annual forecast of a 3.1 percent increase.

Growth in Withholding Tax Collections FY20 Monthly and Year-to-Date

- Collections increased 4.2 percent in April due to an additional Wednesday and Thursday deposit day this April as compared to last April.
  - Growth slowed as COVID-19 began to shut down many businesses.
  - May will have two fewer deposit days, and provide a clearer picture.
- Year-to-date, withholding collections have increased 4.7 percent compared with the same period last year, same as the projected annual growth of 4.7 percent.

Nonwithholding Tax Collections

FY18 – FY20 Monthly

- April receipts were down significantly as the May 1 filing date for final tax year 2019 and the first estimated payment for tax year 2020 was moved to June 1.
- There is no equivalent historical data to compare this year to past years for analysis.

Nonwithholding Tax Collections

Growth in Nonwithholding Revenue Collections

FY13, FY14, FY19 and FY20

Year-to-Date

- Estimated and final payments due May 1 are now due June 1 and affect prior year comparisons.

Individual Income Tax Refunds

- Through April, TAX has issued $1,513.8 million in individual refunds compared with $1,498.8 million in the same period last year, a 1.0 percent increase as compared to the annual estimate of 13.7 percent growth.
- With the individual filing due date moving from May 1 to June 1, there has been a significant slowdown in filings.
  - Average check size is up 1.0 percent.

Net Individual Income Tax

- Through the first nine months of the fiscal year, collections of net individual income tax decreased 0.4 percent from the same period last year, behind the annual estimate of 1.3 percent growth.
- Once again, moving the filing date from May 1 to June 1 has made any meaningful comparisons useless.

Growth in Sales Tax Collections

FY20 Monthly and Year-to-Date

Monthly Growth: -3.8% 12.9% 9.0% 8.4% 11.9% 5.1% 9.9% 8.8% 7.9% -0.4%

- Collections of sales and use taxes, reflecting mainly March sales, decreased 0.4 percent in April.
  - Without the additional food and ABC sales, the month would have been down about -4.0 percent.
  - The month also includes about one-half of the month having the entire economy still open.
- On a year-to-date basis, collections increased 7.4 percent, same as the annual estimate of 7.4 percent growth.

Net Corporate Income Tax Collections

- As with individual income tax payments, corporate estimated and final payments are now due June 1.
- Collections were $149.9 million for corporations deciding to pay this month as compared to $272.3 million received last April.
- April to June receipts will be analyzed in July as to how companies performed in final payments for tax year 2019 and their two estimated payments for tax year 2020 (due June 1 and June 15).

Recordation and Insurance Premiums Tax

Recordation

- In April, collections increased 25.2 percent compared to last year. Year-to-date collections have increased 29.8 percent compared to last year as compared to the forecast of 21.3 percent growth.

Insurance

- Collections for the month were $141.7 million as compared to $136.6 million last April.
  - The activity represents estimated payments due April 15.
- For the fiscal year to-date, net insurance premiums tax collections are $223.8 million compared with $247.9 million during the same period last year.

- Total collections would fall 12.2 percent in May and June to realize a $1 billion shortfall.

Next Steps

- May
  - Individual income tax refunding continues.
  - Effects of COVID-19 will be seen in withholding and sales tax collections.
- June
  - Individual and corporations have final payments for tax year 2019 and the first estimated payments for tax year 2020 are due June 1.
  - Individual, corporate and insurance companies have their second estimated payment due June 15.
  - A significant number of waivers from businesses for payment of their Accelerated Sales Tax (AST) bill is expected since numerous businesses have been closed for a significant period of time.

Federal Stimulus Funds

Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security (CARES) Act of 2020 and Other Relief Funds

- To date, the federal government has enacted four separate stimulus bills with additional proposals being circulated.
- While the Coronavirus Relief Fund has gotten most of the attention, there are more than sixty other pots of federal dollars expected to flow to Virginia. In total, these new federal grants exceed $6.1 billion.
- Virginia's estimated share of the Coronavirus Relief Fund is $3.3 billion.
  - $1.8 billion for the state
  - $1.5 billion for local governments
    - Only Fairfax County has the population to qualify for direct federal aid to local governments. That amount is estimated at $200 million.
- Currently, uncertainty remains about how much of the money will be allowed to be spent because of restrictions preventing the aid from replacing lost revenue from tax collections.
- And those totals does not include more than $21 billion in non-grant funding flowing to the Commonwealth, primarily from the Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) and the Municipal Liquidity Facility funding, administered by the Federal Reserve Bank.
- As information becomes available, it will be shared.
